*Sing my tongue the glorious battle;
Sing the ending of the fray.
Now above the cross the Trophy
Sound the loud triumphant lay;
Tell how Christ, the world's Redeemer,
As a Victim won the day.*

*Faithful cross, true sign of triumph,
Be for all the noblest tree;
None in foliage, none in blossom,
None in fruit thine equal be;
Symbol of the world's redemption,
For the weight that hung on thee!*
