Christmas at FLCA

As I write this Tuesday Note, I am mindful that in "ordinary times" we would be presenting our annual Christmas Pageant this very afternoon and evening! Regretfully this year, our striving to support the health and safety of all of our FLCA families has precluded our usual day of singing and sharing and rejoicing. However, we do not want to miss an opportunity to help our students share the Good News of Christmas and we are working on something a little different to share with you Friday, December 17th. Stay tuned!

Advent Appeal

Responses to our advent appeal are beginning to come in and we are so grateful. As you know, private schools, such as First Lutheran Christian Academy are not eligible for any of the government aid for pandemic expenses and must find their own resources to cover the additional expenses.

Understanding how essential donations are for our operations, especially with these added costs, won't you prayerfully consider a gift?

UPCOMING EVENTS

- December 20-31 Christmas Break

The Giving Tree

Our thanks to everyone who was able to provide Christmas gifts for the children in need in our community through our Giving Tree initiative. Today is the last day to drop off unwrapped gifts on the blue chairs outside of the Academy doors.
